What to Bring:

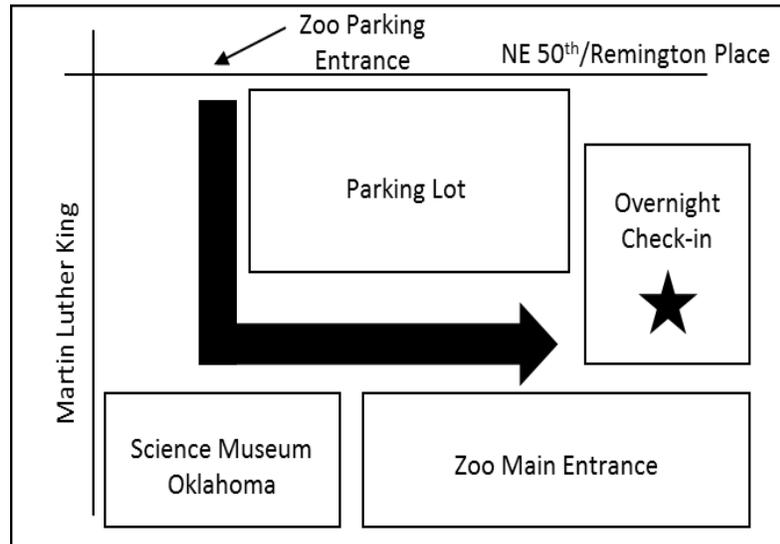

- Toothbrush/Paste
- Pajamas, Change of Clothes for the next day
- No flashlights needed
- Weather Appropriate Gear
- Bedding: Rooms may be hard floors or thinly carpeted, so please bring padding and pillows. Air mattresses are fine, but they take up more space and may cause rooms to be crowded. If you have a queen/king size, consider sharing it with another snoozer.
- Pack light or bring rolling carts to easily move your items.

Food:

- Please eat supper before arrival. The program starts at 7:00.
- The zoo does not provide food or drinks—but you may bring any snacks/breakfast/drinks
- Check if your group's coordinator to see if snacks/breakfast are provided by your group or if you will bring your own. Ice chests are fine.
- A sink, refrigerator and small microwave is available for your use.
- A pot of coffee can be brewed upon request. Please bring your own mug in an effort to be more green.

Emergencies:

Zoo security is on-grounds 24 hours a day to monitor safety and weather concerns. The zoo also has tornado shelters. The security department's after-hours emergency number (405) 620-4571.

Basic Overnight Information

Other Info:

- The zoo, and all city-owned property, is non-smoking.
- Zoo entry gates lock down at 11:00 pm and reopen at 6:00 am.
- Adults and chaperones are responsible for the discipline of the group. The snooze staff person facilitates the programming.
